

We are pleased to inform our CIBO colleagues that AECOM has officially combined with URS as of October 17, 2014. Clients of both AECOM and URS will benefit from our greater scale and resources to provide a broad set of fully integrated services. We now have an unmatched pool of talent with nearly 100,000 employees located in 150 countries around the world. The combined company strengthens the technical and financial resources available for our clients and delivers all four components of the project lifecycle: design, build, finance and operate.
